

Parent Commitment to a Catholic Education:

I commit to helping my child climb the mountain to and through college in the following ways, while a student at St. Helena-Incarnation:

I will teach my child to behave in a way that promotes love, faith, unity, scholarship, and perseverance.

I will take responsibility for my child's actions. I will ensure that he/she serve all consequences and provide transportation if necessary.

I will actively participate in school activities and will attend all required parent meetings and return all calls or emails from the school within 24 hours.

I will make sure my child arrives at school by 7:40 a.m. and is picked up by 3 p.m. each day, and by noon on half days.

I will make sure my child only misses school when it is unavoidable and completes all make up work on time. I will notify the main office by 9 a.m. if my child is absent.

I will make sure my child wears the complete St. Helena-Incarnation uniform to school every day and I will respect the school's decisions on what constitutes a uniform violation.

I will ensure my child follows a home routine that will help him/her be successful in school, including completing his/her homework and going to bed at a set time each night. I will check his/her behavior log nightly and will ensure that he/she is prepared for school the next day.

I will read and sign any papers that are sent home each week.

I will make sure my contact information (address, phone number, etc.) is accurate and update it whenever necessary.

I will inform the school of any special situation regarding my child's well-being, safety, and health.

I will meet all financial obligations to the school, including tuition, fees, and fines for damage to textbooks or school property.

I will support my child's teachers and all St. Helena-Incarnation staff, and communicate honestly and respectfully with them as we prepare my child for success in high school, college, and life.

I will work to help my child follow the St. Helena-Incarnation school values by:

Love

Interacting with all members of the school community with patience, trust, and respect.
Teaching my child that Jesus teaches us to love God with all our heart, soul, and mind, and to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Faith

Encouraging my child to develop a spiritual life.
Modeling for my child a positive outlook and talking to my child about his/her potential.

Unity

Helping my child show respect and patience to every member of our school community, in word and actions.
Resolving concerns with respect, patience, and kindness and modeling accountability.

Scholarship

Helping my child take pride in him/herself and displaying it through his/her effort and behavior.

Perseverance

Helping my child work hard at every task, big or small.

I understand that these commitments are to ensure my child's completion of college and development into a contributing member of society. The failure to adhere to this commitment could result in the loss of St. Helena-Incarnation privileges, disciplinary consequences, and/or dismissal from St. Helena-Incarnation.
