

Student Commitment to a Catholic Education:

I commit to climbing the mountain to and through college in the following ways, while a student at St. Helena-Incarnation:

I will take responsibility for my actions, be honest, and accept the consequences for my actions when necessary.

I will arrive at school by 7:40 a.m. and be picked up by 3 p.m. every day, except half days with a noon dismissal.

I will make sure to only miss school when it is unavoidable and complete all required make up work.

I will wear the St. Helena-Incarnation uniform to school every day and I will immediately correct all uniform violations.

I will complete my homework every night and make sure I am prepared for school the next day.

I will follow all classroom rules and treat my classmates and teachers with love at all times as we work to prepare for success in high school, college, and life.

I am responsible for my own achievement. I know that I can succeed with hard work and perseverance.

As a member of the St. Helena-Incarnation team and family, I will work every day to uphold the St. Helena-Incarnation core values:

Love

Do the right thing at all times.

Treat other as I wish to be treated.

Lead others with respect, patience, and empathy.

Faith

Be self-aware and adjust my mindset and actions to be a better person.

Apply lessons learned in religion class and during mass to all parts of my life.

Unity

Communicate my feelings and opinions in a calm, respectful tone.

Be willing to give and receive help.

Show respect and patience when interacting with all members of our community.

Recognize and accept responsibility when a wrong decision hurts or affects our team and family.

Scholarship

Take pride in my work.

Perseverance

Complete all work to the best of my ability.

Approach obstacles with an "I can do it" mindset.

Engage in ALL learning activities with a sense of urgency.

Set ambitious goals and create a plan that will make me most successful in achieving them.

I understand that if these commitments are not met, it will negatively affect my future success and I will receive consequences, including loss of St. Helena-Incarnation privileges, and possible dismissal from school.
